Coal City Public Library District

MEETING SPACES POLICY AND MEETING ROOM APPLICATION*

The Coal City Public Library District provides public meeting rooms to support the Library's mission to provide comprehensive informational, educational, recreational, historical and intellectual opportunities through a variety of programs, technology, resources and services in a comfortable safe environment.

Meeting rooms are made available for the operational needs of the Library first, then to provide accommodations for educational, informational, cultural and civic functions within the district. When feasible, the Library makes the meeting room(s) available for rental by members who have a Coal City Public Library card in good standing.

For purposes of this policy, meeting rooms shall refer to the Annex A, Annex B and the Main Meeting Room.

AVAILABILITY AND USE

Priority for any meeting room is assigned as follows:

1. Library-sponsored programs and activities, including functions of the Coal City Public Library District and its committees;
2. Educational, informational, cultural and civic programs sponsored or co-sponsored by the Library and related to its mission, collections and services;
3. Meetings of municipalities, agencies or departments of local government located within the district boundaries;
4. Meetings of other organizations of which the Library is a member and active partner;
5. Meetings of organizations whose purposes are educational, cultural or civic in nature and/or classified as a not-for-profit 501 (c)(3); and
6. Businesses and other groups within the district boundaries in need of space to conduct a meeting or seminar consistent with the Library's mission.

LIMITATIONS

The Library's meeting rooms are not available for uses, events or activities which are contrary to the Library's mission. Examples of uses and/or activities meeting rooms may not be used for include but are not limited to:

1. Social or private parties, such as birthday and graduation parties, and bridal/baby showers;
2. Uses, events or other activities which, by their nature, may be disruptive to normal Library operation unless approved by the Library in advance;
3. Recitals or large performances of a theatrical nature;
4. Fundraising activities, except for those that result in a direct benefit to the Library and have received prior approval of the Library Director;
5. Political rallies and/or meetings organized for the purpose of urging action such as voting for or against any candidate, position, question, or referendum;
6. Religious workshop and/or services;
7. Legal conferences or proceedings, including but not limited to depositions;
8. Realty closings;
9. Any use through which a salary or fee is earned or business is solicited;
10. Commercial meetings for advertising or solicitation; to conduct market research; or to interview job applicants;

ELIGIBILITY

1. Applicants must be 18 years of age or older, reside in the Coal City Public Library District and have a current valid CCPLD library card in good standing.¹
2. The applicant must remain in the room during the meeting.

3. Applications must be made in advance on the Library's application form. (Appendix A)
4. Applications must be completed and returned before meeting space can be confirmed.
5. Applicants must show proof of insurance with their application.

INDEMNIFICATION

For and in consideration of the use of the meeting rooms and Library facilities, any person or group using them agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Coal City Public Library District from any and all actions or suits relating to its use of such rooms and facilities.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

Users of the meeting room agree to abide by all Library policies and the regulations established herein. Failure to abide by these regulations and/ or Library policies will result in cancellation or refusal of future reservations. These regulations apply to all Library spaces used for the purpose of bringing a group together.

1. All users shall, at their own expense, procure any license or permit necessary to hold their meeting.
2. Smoking and consumption of alcohol are prohibited.
3. Any material that is deemed hazardous or dangerous is prohibited.
4. Children seven (7) years of age and under must be supervised by a responsible caregiver at all times.
5. The Library is not responsible for items left unattended or forgotten.
6. No group may transfer a room reservation to another group.
7. Admission may not be charged by any group.
8. Organizations may not ask for personal information from program attendees.
9. The Library does not provide assistance in transporting supplies to the rooms or help with set-up. Library staff are not available to help with meetings, take attendance or assist with registration.

10. The Library does not provide storage space for equipment or supplies of any group using the meeting room.
11. All meetings must be open to the public.
12. Meeting rooms are available only on regular Library business days.
13. Groups conducting meetings that go beyond the regular closing Library hours will be responsible for setting the alarm system. Failure to do this may result in the suspension of meeting room privileges.
14. Meeting room use is not allowed before regular Library hours.
15. Behavior that disturbs others is not permitted. The Library has the right to cancel or interrupt the use of the room at any time. All meetings must adhere to the Library's Patron Behavior Policy.
16. The applicant is responsible for ensuring that its meeting complies with requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act and compliance shall be at the renting group's own cost and expense.
17. The Coal City Public Library District reserves the right to cancel a meeting room reservation if a conflict arises with a Library-sponsored program or there is an unforeseen event, such as a power outage or inclement weather. Staff will assist the individual in finding an alternate date.
18. Commercial entities may host informational and educational seminars, workshops, etc., but all such meetings must be free and open to the public. Attendees may not be asked for contact information as a condition of attending or participating.
19. By allowing use of its meeting rooms, the Library does not endorse the activities or viewpoints of meeting room users. Groups using the Library's meeting room must:
 - a. Not state or imply that the group's activities are sponsored by the Library.
 - b. Not use the Library as a mailing address or list the Library's name, address, phone number or web address as its headquarters.

- c. Not publicize their meetings with posters, leaflets or other publicity in the Library building without prior approval by the Library Director. Directional signs and/or notices for day-of events must be approved by staff prior to posting and removed immediately after use of the meeting room.
- d. Include the following Disclaimer in all publications and advertisements:

"Use of Library meeting space does not constitute endorsement or approval of the organization, this program or its content by the Coal City Public Library District."

- 20. The Library retains the right to monitor all meetings conducted on the premises to ensure compliance with Library regulations and policies. The Board of Trustees of the Coal City Public Library District or the Library Director shall reserve the option to pre-empt or cancel any meeting or refuse meeting room use.
- 21. The group will be responsible for returning the room to its original condition. If the Library must perform clean-up activities, the group shall be billed an hourly rate for the amount of time required to return the room to its original condition.
- 22. All decorations and displays must be approved in advance by the Library Director. Only decorations which can stand on a floor or table and which conform to fire regulations may be permitted. Nothing may be attached to the walls or ceilings of a meeting room.

RESERVATIONS

Meeting rooms may be reserved up to one (1) year in advance for up to twelve (12) meetings annually. Reservations will be accepted in the order they are received, but are still subject to the priority use outlined above. Organizations may not use the space more than two (2) times per month.

OCCUPANCY LIMITS

The occupancy limits are those which are set by the fire marshal.

REFRESHMENTS

Use of the meeting room includes kitchen privileges. Refreshments may be served. All food and beverages must remain in the meeting room.

EQUIPMENT AND FURNISHINGS

Electronic equipment to support the meeting must be requested on (Appendix A) Part IV of the Meeting Room Application.

Organizations using a meeting room are responsible for reimbursing the Library for any damage that occurs to the Library equipment, carpeting, furniture or premises due to the organization's use. Failure to reimburse the Library for damages will result in the suspension of Library and/or meeting room privileges, and possible criminal charges.

All fees for damage shall be paid within thirty days. Failure to do so shall result in forfeiture of the right to use the meeting room facilities.
